Sophic Tacker's Party Week Away

One week from to-night is, the date of Miss Sophic Tucker's party for the smoke fund at the Hotel Claridge. Miss Tucker and her company of musicians, who have been one of the greatest hits of the present vau-leville season in New York, will contribute several numbers to the excellent programme, and they will have the assistance, among others, of the Dooleys, from Coccanut Grove; Joseph Lectors of "Claims Town."

"Here in the Northwest the situation was never so bright." Weyh was advised by one I. W. W. official on August 15. 1917. "The lumber workers are assured of winning their strike and the authorities around the fruit belt, where they have been sapping upon the members and throwing them in fail with no charges, are beginning to back down after a general strike call had been issued. They know we have the power to make by the pooleys, from Coccanut Grove; Joseph Lectors of "Claims Town."

The trustees were led to make the gift of $5.000,000 to the first campaign because the Red Cross on a recognized war basis was only in its infancy, with a membership of but 200,000. Now it has an upprecedented record of achievement, 23,000,000 members, and the confidence of the nextle of the people.

'The sum the Foundation was able to is made possible by a gift from the founder. Mr. Chairman, I take pleasure in reporting to the corporation team a pledge from the Rockefeller Foundation

Workers Cheer Announcement.

The mention of $3,000,000 acted like a spring to bring everybody to his feet and there was a great demonstration of gratitude to the man who had given it. Cleveland H. Dodge suggested that a vote of thanks be given to Mr. Rockefeller, which was done At this juncture Gov. Whitman came in and was immediately called upon for
